Trip out information:

The Heritage Centre – Set on the edge of the South Downs National Park, the Heritage Centre is home to over 60 artists, makers, foodies, educators, gardening history enthusiasts and volunteers. It’s also famous for the Sussex Food Hall which brings together the best of local and regional food producers with food not found in your supermarket.

The Arun View - The Arun View Inn is situated on the side of the River Arun in Littlehampton where you can enjoy the views of the river and watch the boats setting out to, or returning from, the sea. The Arun prides itself on using freshly prepared, local and seasonal produce served in a relaxed and friendly atmosphere.

The Old Barn & Squires - Stroll around the garden centres where there’s a huge range of top-quality plants and gardening products – and if you need any advice or help, there’s always an expert on hand. The centre also has an excellent restaurant, serving delicious main courses and desserts, snacks and sandwiches.

The Ship & Anchor - This Traditional Pub offers a large, delicious menu of home cooked food with local craft real ales and wines. And their home-made Steak & Kidney pie is to die for!!
