Important Trip information:

The Stables Tea Room & Restaurant – Set in the grounds of the picturesque Heavens Farm, The Stable Tea Rooms boasts homemade cakes, scones and cream teas, alongside a wide selection of hot meals all freshly made in its rustic kitchens.

Fort Nelson – Situated on top of Portsdown Hill overlooking the Solent, and with free admission alongside full disabled access, there’s plenty to explore in this fully restored Fort. Not only does it offer a museum, gallery and secret tunnels, but also Café 1871 which provides visitors with breath taking views of Fareham and surrounding areas while enjoying a hot meal.

Gun Wharf Quays – Set on the historic, cultural harbour waterfront in the heart of Portsmouth, Gunwharf Quays is home to over 90 stores, offering up to 60% discount on regular retail prices with over 30 restaurants, bars and coffee shops and is an ideal place to explore, shop and dine.

The Ship and Anchor – Happy Birthday, Joyce! Enjoy the usual large, delicious menu of home cooked food with local craft real ales and wines whilst celebrating one of our clients very special birthdays. Hopefully there’s something special for the occasion...

Sussex Prairie Gardens – The gardens are Britain’s largest “Prairie,” or “Naturalistic,” garden with eight acres of stunning gardens to explore. We’ll arrive in time for lunch at 1pm in the teashop where you can sample homemade cakes, sandwiches and refreshments and enjoy the view from the patio which overlooks the gardens. Once you’ve had a bite to eat feel free to explore as much or as little of these lovely gardens at your leisure.
