Important Trip information:

The Beachy Head – This country pub oozes rural charm and rustic character in picturesque surroundings and provides the perfect backdrop for savouring the hearty, seasonal pub-food and carefully nurtured cask ales and fine wines.

Gun Wharf Quays – Set on the historic, cultural harbour waterfront in the heart of Portsmouth, Gunwharf Quays is home to over 90 stores, offering up to 60% discount on regular retail prices with over 30 restaurants, bars and coffee shops and is an ideal place to explore, shop and dine.

Sussex Prairie Gardens – The gardens are Britain’s largest “Prairie,” or “Naturalistic,” garden with eight acres of stunning gardens to explore. We’ll arrive in time for lunch at 1pm in the teashop where you can sample homemade cakes, sandwiches and refreshments and enjoy the view from the patio which overlooks the gardens. Once you’ve had your lunch feel free to explore these lovely gardens at your leisure.

The Jack And Jill Inn - The Jack and Jill is a traditional English public house and run by the Harman family since 1970. Situated in the picturesque Sussex countryside, just 8 miles from Brighton and overlooked by the famous Jack and Jill windmills, it offers home cooked meals, which throughout the summer months, can be taken outside in the extensive gardens.
