Middle Farm – This farm visit was our first mystery tour and it proved to be so popular we're having to bring it back as a regular outing. Nestling at the foot of Firlie Beacon on the South Downs in Sussex, Middle Farm is a 625 acre working family farm. It offers a warm countryside welcome, with something for everyone. Coupled with the Plough Monday restaurant which serves delicious home-made, country recipes freshly cooked every day in the farm kitchens this farm is a must visit!

George & Dragon - The George & Dragon" is reputedly one of the oldest 3 pubs in Sussex that has a wealth of charm & character. Nestling amongst the rolling hills of the Sussex Downs National Park the pub garden has some of the most breathtaking views across the Sussex countryside and provides good, honest, traditional homemade food, traditional ales and a variety of wines. NOTE: Please select your meal from the enclosed menu and provide your choices when you call to book your trips.

Tulleys Farm – Tulleys Farm has a collection of friendly furry animals, including goats, rabbits and a selection of birds and fowl as well as other themed entertainment.
